

New, Seasonable Goods Offered at End-of-Season Prices

We delight in doing things in a different way—particularly if our wandering from the "beaten track" benefits our patrons, and this time we are surely doing something out of the ordinary—we're not waiting for the end of the season before we offer bargains in seasonable goods. Here they are right at the beginning of the season—in time to be of service for the entire season.

We have a full line of Colors and White Irish Poplin, that new fabric that is being used so much, at 25c yard.

Oyama Silk, the new and popular Silk for dresses and separate waists, 27 inches wide, 29c yard.

New invoice of Messaline in a very fine fabric and all beautiful colors, 18 inches wide, 59c yard.

Ruff Silk is the new fabric with us this season. Comes in gray and tan. A very pretty fabric and very popular, 27 inches wide, 50c yard.

New Black Taffeta Silk, a fine soft finished Silk and a regular $1.25 quality, for $1.00 per yard.

An item in yesterday's Times gave credit to State's Attorney J. C. Jones of Rutland for bringing to the attention of the state board of pharmacy the cases of the convicted Rutland druggists. This was an error, as Judge Stanton brought the matter to the attention of the state board.

Reports from Barre people at Old Orchard Beach, Me., are to the effect that people are beginning to appreciate the late season at that resort. The "Bath-elder house," run by Barre people, reports an unusually large number of guests right up to the present time. Sea bathing has been indulged in until the first of November.

EACH ONE THAT COMES TO THE SWAP PARTY is asked to carry a well wrapped parcel not over 10c in value. A large crowd is necessary for the success of the social. DON'T MISS IT. You will enjoy the musical program and spelling match. Refreshments will be served during the evening for the small price of 10c. ADMISSION FREE.

The local acie of Eagles, joined by about 50 members of the Montpelier acie, held a venison supper last evening in Foresters' hall. The "spread" comprised venison and steamed clams. The venison was furnished by John D. Bartlett, a member of the acie, and Angelo Scampini prepared the supper, which these present say was "fit for a king."

United States Senator William P. Dillingham has been engaged to deliver an address before the members of the Victoria club at their club rooms in the Blanchard building next Wednesday evening at a "smoke talk" and it is expected that he will speak on "Immigration."

Senator Dillingham is chairman of the national immigration commission and is very well versed in the subject. The lecture will start at eight o'clock.

Miss Ros. Carlyle, one of the most beautiful young women on the American stage, will be seen as Marie Louise, when Charles Frohman sends his production of Henri Bernstein's great play, "The Thief," to the Barre opera house tomorrow night. Miss Carlyle was discovered by Mr. Frohman, when she was a member of Mrs. Patrick Campbell's company, where her beauty and her unusual dramatic power had made an important place for her.

OVERCOAT THOUGHTS

In which model of our handsome new Overcoats will you meet the coming season, Sir?

Nothing would please us more than to have you step in and try on the different styles and see the choice fabrics. You can then consider the matter intelligently and you can buy at your pleasure.

Our Overcoats come to us fresh from the hands of the best tailoring talent known to the trade. They're

OVERCOATS OF QUALITY

Simply as a suggestion we'll say—Do not allow yourself to be influenced in the least by any advertised price of an overcoat until you see the COAT that stands for the price. It's so very easy to quote prices, but the offering of the Overcoat excellence WE OFFER at OUR PRICES makes most clothing houses stand back. A look will furnish you proof positive, however, and we're at your service. We'd rather show you than tell you. May we?
